

MIRROR BETRAYED THEF'S PRESENCE.

Reflection in a Glass Leads to the Arrest of a Clever Burglar.

Johnson's Lack of Knowledge About Angles May Cost Him Fifteen Years.

Had Long Puzzled the Police by His Skillful Daylight
Robberies.

CAUGHT AFTER A HARD CHASE.

May Have to Serve Two Sentences, One of Them for a Robbery in Which He Turned State's Evidence.

Although William Johnson, colored, understands the science of burglary as well as any other thief who ever operated on the upper West Side, he is not properly dam avenue. He was caught, and by turning State's evidence, convicted his companion, Alfred Becker. The latter was given ten years in Sing Sing. Johnson's sentence was suspended, but, according to the custom in court, he will have the term added to the time he must serve for his last adventure. In Yorkville Court yesterday he was committed in default of $3,000 bail.

PLATT WILL SURELY RUN.

Committeeman Scott Says the Tioga Chief Told Him He Would Be a Candidate for Senator.

Washington, D. C., Nov. 23.—Mr. Thomas C. Platt will positively be a candidate for the United States Senate from New York.
He so stated yesterday morning to Mr.
Nathaniel Scott, member of the Republican National Committee from West Virginia and one of Mark Hanna's ablest lieutenants during the campaign.

Mr. Scott arrived in Washington to-night from New York. He breakfasted with Mr.
Platt at the Fifth Avenue Hotel yesterday morning.

"Mr. Platt told me at breakfast," said Mr. Scott, "that he would be a candidate for the United States Senate to succeed Senator Hill. Mr. Platt is a strong man—the strongest one the Republicans can select in New York. Business interests will have explicit confidence in him, and I have no doubt he will be elected."

WHOLE FAMILY HELD UP.

Masked Bandits Bound Their Victims, Robbed Them and Rode Off.

Great Barrington, Mass., Nov. 23.—Two masked robbers called on Saturday evening at the home of Levi Roys, a prosperous farmer, who lived a few miles from

SAID HE WAS VANDERBILT.

But It Was Really Dr. J. H. Browning Whose Horse Ran Away in Central Park.

The driver whose horse ran away in Central Park on Sunday afternoon, seriously damaging other vehicles and causing intense excitement, was not Frederick W.
Vanderbilt. Mr. Vanderbilt was at the time at his country seat, at Hyde Park, and had been there since Wednesday.

Yesterday afternoon a stout, florid-faced man appeared at the Park stables and asked that the horse and high cart be delivered to him. He said he was Dr. J. H.
Browning, of Southampton, L. I., and that his address was the New York Club.

Dr. Browning is a well-known man about town. His home is at the New York Club at Thirty-fifth street and Fifth avenue. He is a great lover of horses, and his turnout is often seen in Central Park. He was seen last evening at the club-house, and when asked how the impression had gotten out that he was Mr. Vanderbilt, said frankly:

"Because I said I was, I had no reason for saying it, and it was only because I must have been rather excited after my terrible struggle with the horse. An officer ran up to me and asked me for my name.
I felt irritated, and answered hastily 'Vanderbilt,' and he said 'I then got into a cab, and drove off, leaving my horse in charge of the Park police. I did not say that he was Frederick Vanderbilt, but I suppose they took me to be the Vanderbilt whom I most resembled in appearance. I am very sorry I made that hasty remark, and I have written to Mr. Vanderbilt, who is a personal friend of mine, explaining how it occurred."
